

B. C. S. Bulletin To Old Boys

VOL. XV No. 1

COMPILER: H. L. HALL, M.A. ('16-'27)

NOVEMBER 1955

THE HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE: Once again it is my privilege as Headmaster to write a foreword to the Old Boys' Bulletin.

The School is filled with a record enrolment of two hundred and eleven boys, the first time that we have gone over the two hundred mark. I would like to emphasize that this does not represent any overcrowding. Two new houses have been built during the summer for Masters, releasing ample quarters in the School for the additional boys. Indeed I think the boys in the School are just as well housed, if not better, than ever before.

I think too I can say that the School is alert to the danger of having too many boys enrolled. We do not want to lose touch with the individual, and I am confident there is no danger of this.

All in all, I would say the School is in a healthy state. This is perhaps a dangerous statement to make so early in the year, but I do hope that you will find it possible to visit us and find out for yourself.

Any Old Boy, at any time, would be most welcome I can assure you.

THE THANKSGIVING WEEK-END: OCTOBER 8-10

Magnificent fall weather greeted the many parents and Old Boys who were present for the Thanksgiving celebrations at the School -- its 120th year -- which, this year, has a record attendance of 211 boys. Saturday morning, Ashbury defeated the School rugby team 21-6. Sunday morning, St. Peter's Church, Sherbrooke, was crowded for the School service, conducted by the Chaplain. The Archbishop of Quebec preached on the meaning of the words THANKS and GIVING and pointed out how grateful Canadians should be for their many blessings. The Choir sang Purcell's anthem, "Rejoice in the Lord," and Donald Patriquin (VIIth Form) played the organ. Sunday afternoon, the Headmaster and Mrs. Glass were AT HOME, and Old Boys once again thank them for their kindness. Monday morning, the School rugby team defeated the Old Boys 9-0. Lunch was served at two sittings and at 3 p.m. Prize Giving was held in the Gymn. Seated on the platform were: Mr. Justice C. D. Abbott, the guest of honour; Mr. Justice W. Mitchell, Chairman; The Headmaster; R. R. McLernon; H. W. Davis, Q. C. ; T. H. P. Molson; D. Doheny; G. A. Sharp; J. Baillie; D. R. McMaster, Q. C. ; D. I. McNeill, Q. C. ; E. Webster; F. R. Pattison; E. G. Brine. The Chairman in welcoming the large audience congratulated the Headmaster, Staff and Boys for the united efforts that had produced such fine results during the past year, and congratulated J. G. Patriquin, Esq., for his promotion to Senior Master of the School, the first appointment to this new position, and thanked him on behalf of the whole School for his loyal services and devotion to duty over a period of 26 years. The Headmaster, in replying, seconded the words of the Chairman and thanked the Board of Directors for the encouragement they gave constantly and the great interest they showed in the School's many activities. He referred to the printed record with reference to the many achievements of Old Boys and mentioned again that B. C. S. was a manly school and that school work, a boy's business, was of paramount importance. The Chairman introduced the guest speaker who mentioned the advantages of schools such as B. C. S. and advised the boys to seek the opportunity of being of public service and praised the contributions that so many Old Boys had made in numerous fields of endeavour. In conclusion, he asked for a half-holiday which was enthusiastically greeted by many in the audience. Prizes were then distributed after which a Tea Dance, to which Compton girls were invited, was held in the Gymn.

Thanksgiving Day was the more enjoyable due to the presence of E. Fraser-Campbell ('97-'02), 143 Gloucester Road, London, S.W. 7, England, his brother. A. Fraser-Campbell ('97-'03), 192 Putnam Park, Greenwich, Conn., U. S. A., and R. Meredith ('98-'00), Quebec City, P.Q. We are grateful to the latter for accompanying the Fraser-Campbell's to the School which they had not visited for over 50 years. The elder brother was Head Prefect and winner of the Lieutenant-Governor's Medal in his final year; the younger was winner of the Ottawa Cup in 1901 for the Cross Country race, and the Pattee Shield for highest standing and the Governor-General's Medal in 1903; and Meredith likewise was awarded the Pattee Shield and Governor-General's Medal in 1900. We assure them that the interest and enthusiasm they showed for the School during their all-too-short visit were an inspiration to younger ones, and we hope that their visit has revived memories that will be a source of pleasure for many years to come.

We extend congratulations to the following for winning prizes and medals:

P. Duffield ('52-'55): The Old Boys' Prize for 1st general proficiency in VIIth.

We welcome the following Old Boys, who left the School last June, as members of the Association: V. J. R. Bailey ('50-'55); P. R. Duffield ('52-'55); J. G. McGreevy ('52-'55); R. D. Perry, jr. ('52-'55); L. G. Scheib ('45-'55); H. Dixon ('45-'55); W. M. Sharp ('49-'55); M. Pick ('48-'55); R. A. Eakin ('49-'55); J. S. Trott ('47-'55); P. H. Smith ('50-'55); J. J. Dever ('46-'55); J. D. Harries ('54-'55).

SHORT PEN-PICTURES OF OLD BOYS PAYING (?) THEIR FEES

OLD BOY: (Seated at his office desk -- has just received in the mail notice of payment of fees):

"I must attend to this at once. Too many of us are just careless and neglect to send in our fees. We can't let the Association and School down." (Takes pen and blank cheque book from his pocket -- slowly takes cap off pen -- 'phone rings.) "Why, hello, Bill! What's that you say? Join you in a dozen beers and an oyster, I mean, a beer and a dozen oysters? Why, certainly, I'll be with you in a minute." (Leaves office whistling joyfully, after putting pen and blank cheque book back in pocket.)

OLD BOY: (Seated at his office desk -- has just received, etc., etc.,) "Well, that's something

I must attend to this year -- remembered to forget it last year, I mean forgot to remember it last year -- and the year before, too; in fact, I haven't paid since the School moved away from the College. " (Compiler's note: 1922). (Takes pen and blank cheque book from his pocket -- slowly takes cap off pen. Starts wondering how much he would save if he took out Life Membership. Works it out and is tickled pink to find he saves another Life Membership and a half. Rushes out to pass on the good news to other Old Boys who are still doubting Thomases, after joyfully putting pen and blank cheque book back in pocket.)

OLD BOY: (Seated at his office desk, etc., etc., etc.) "What's this? 1350 Old Boys' names on the mailing list and only 349 paid-up members. Why, we can't let this happen to the Association and the dear, old School. " (Voice quavers, tears begin to form in his eyes, removes handkerchief from pocket) "This can't go on, everyone should pull his weight." (Takes pen and blank cheque book from his pocket -- slowly takes cap off pen -- wind from open window rustles papers which attract his attention -- gets up to close it just as his secretary comes in.) "Oh, Miss ---, I've been sitting in a draught and have a deuce of a cold coming on. I'm going out to get a couple of -- er, aspirin." (Leaves office sneezing and coughing, after putting pen and blank cheque book back in pocket.)

Senator H. deM. Molson ('18-'24) was elected in November a Director of the Sun Life Company of Canada.

Considerable new building, alterations and repairs took place during the summer under the direction of the Headmaster and Mr. Lunderville, and supervised by Captain Abbott. A six-room brick bungalow, built on the foundations of the Chalet, has been occupied by the Campbell's and an eight-room, ranch style bungalow, for the Patriquin's, has been built next to the Abbott's house (formerly the Whitlow's and the Fisher's). The top storey of the Power House has been altered, making 16 rooms for the use of the sub-staff. The old trunk room in the basement of the Main Building has been converted into the Q. M. 's store, with access from the locker room. The former Q. M. 's store (the barber shop of 1920's) has been made into the Chalet smoking room and the room on the Main Floor remains the Chalet Reading Room. The Bell Room is now the Mail Room and the bell board has been attached to the panels to the left of its entrance, with the Pilgrims moving into William's House, their apartment has been converted into a Sixth Form dormitory with common room. The floors of the Administration Wing and Masters' Common Rooms have been attended to by Ben. One half of the apartment used by the Campbell's last year is occupied by boys, and Mr. Owen is in the other half. Boys also occupy the rooms used by Mr. Thomas last year. His rooms this year are the guest rooms next to the Masters' Common Room. Oiling of the panels, cleaning of walls, repairs to linoleum, and general painting and plastering jobs in the Main Buildings complete a busy summer's programme of work.
